

PRIDE ACADEMY

February Newsletter

Week 1

This Week's Agenda

Literacy & Phonics: Reading "Have You Thanked an Inventor Today?" and "The Secret Garden of George Washington Carver", practicing letter B sounds, and exploring new words through picture books and interactive storytelling.

Math: Counting to 4, sorting objects by size and shape, and creating patterns using stars (shape of the week) and yellow/brown (colors of the week).

Science: Mixing colors, exploring textures, and engaging in sensory play with soft objects inspired by George Washington Carver and other inventors.

Social Studies: Learning about community helpers like inventors, discussing teamwork, kindness, and creating a Friendship Tree with heart-shaped cutouts.

Creative Arts & Music: Finger painting, heart stamping, and making Valentine's Day keepsake crafts while dancing and moving to music.

Wellbeing & Movement: Engaging in yoga stretches, gentle bouncing, rolling balls, and interactive movement games to support gross motor development and social bonding.

How You Can Support at Home:

📖 Read together while pointing out letters, colors, and familiar objects in books.

🎨 Encourage creativity with safe painting, stacking, and exploring textures.

🧸 Talk about kindness by modeling gentle interactions and teamwork.

We're excited for another wonderful learning, playing, and discovery week!

Hello February

Dear Families,
Welcome to February at Pride Academy!
This week, we celebrate Black inventors and explore their contributions to our world. Our Scholars will engage in hands-on learning experiences, sensory exploration, and activities that support early development through movement, creativity, and social interactions.
